SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 5 years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not possess a firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921.

The defendant shall not own, possess or have under her control any firearm, dangerous weapon or other destructive device.

The defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days after being placed on supervision and at least two periodic tests thereafter.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall participate in a drug/alcohol treatment program under the guidance and supervision of the United States Probation Officer and if able, contribute to the cost of services for such treatment.

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 14135a(d)(1) and 10 U.S.C. 1565(d), which requires mandatory DNA testing for federal offenders convicted of felony, the defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to a search of her person, property(real, personal, or rental), residence, office, and/or vehicle, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

FINE

The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine and cost of incarceration. The Court will waive the fine and cost of incarceration in this case.
